Oblinary.

"Well done theu good and faithful servant, he"cause thou hast been faithful in little things; enter "into the joy of thy Lord." These words may justly be applied to the lamented Mrs. M. B. Davis, (consort of the late Capt. F. S. Davis, deceased, in his country's defence,) who departed this life August 23, after a long and painful illness, berne with Christian fortitude.

The deceased was a convert to the Roman Catholic Church, whose hely precepts she always most faithfully and fervently observed. She was indeed, an exemplary christian, a devoted w.fc, and a tender mother.

May our good, loving and merofful God console her dear son. (a noble boy now fighting for his country.) and her little daughter in their present sad becavement, is the ardent prayer of ARIEND.

Galveston, August 24th, 1662.